

WHAT WE DO

Site supervision, consultancy work, surveys and inspections

Amorim Marine Services first and foremost acts on behalf of customers who require professional assistance in respect of supervision of new buildings, marine consultancy work and inspection of ships.

Amorim Marine Services are used to work with partners in various countries with different cultures where we can offer our services to ship owners, ship managers and ship operators.

At Amorim Marine Services you get access to a highly qualified staff possessing the right qualifications and necessary in-depth experience gained from many years of working in the marine industry. We have extensive hands-on experience from practical work with ships, shipping and management systems.

Amorim Marine Services offer marine consultancy work in areas such as – but not limited to:

- Planning & supervision of repair projects
- Regulatory requirements

Special competencies:

- Oil- and chemical tankers
- Operation and management
- Supervision of new buildings

Surveys:

- On hire/Off hire
- Sale & purchase
- Docking
- Safety
- Condition surveys – hull, machinery and equipment
- Pre-entry (P&I clubs)
- Cargo claims
- Pre-shipment inspection

- Damage survey
- Cargo inspections (loading/discharging)

New buildings:

- Project preparation and management
- Preparation of technical documentation
- Evaluation of shipyards
- Contract negotiations
- Preparation of tender documentation
- Contact to Classification Societies
- Site supervision
- Commissioning and testing (acting as owner's representative)
- Taking over/delivery and acceptance

Other services offered:

- Marine safety services
- Accident/incident investigation
- Flag State Inspection

Amorim Marine Services can also assist you with....

Training courses

We have an extensive network of companies who offer training courses, tailor made to officers and ratings on subjects such as SIRE/CDI vetting, MARPOL compliance as well as Safety Awareness Courses. We will be pleased to assist you in establishing contact to any of these companies.

In short, if you are looking for a professional solution in all aspects of the marine industry then please do not hesitate to contact us.